HOME.

BY JAMES MONTGOMERY.

There is a land, of every land the pride,
Beloved by heaven o'er all the world beside;
Where brighter suns dispense serener light,
And milder moons emparadise the night;
A land of beauty, virtue, valor, truth,
Time-tutored age, and love-exalted youth.

The wandering mariner, whose eyes explores
The wealthiest isles, the most charming shores,
Views not a realm so beautiful and fair,
Nor breathes the spirit of a purer air;
In every clime the magnet of his soul,
Touched by remembrance, trembles to that pole:
For in this land of heaven's peculiar grace,
The heritage of nature's noblest race,
There is a spot than all the rest,
Where man, creation's tyrant, casts aside
His sword and scepter, pageantry and pride,
While in his softened looks benignly blend
The sire, the son, the husband, brother friend.
Here woman reigns; the mother, daughter, wife
Strew with fresh flowers the narrow way of life!
In the clear heaven of her delightful eye,
An angel-guard of love and graces lie;
Around her knees domestic duties meet,
And fireside pleasures gambol at her feet
Where shall that land, that spot of earth be found?
Art thou a man?—a patriot?—look around;
Oh! thou shalt find, howe'er thy footsteps roam,
That thy country, and that spot thy home.

A gashing young couple were examining the Chinese department in the great Exhibition. She was gazing curiously at the almond-eyed natives, and he was admiring the wonderful goods on exhibition. "Do you know," asked he, "that the Chinese are more than six thousand years old?" "Why no, dear," returned she, with astonishment, "they don't look to be over thirty, do they?"

A man entered a smoking car on the Vermont Central a few days ago, and in an earnest and sympathetic tone said: "A lady in the next coach has fainted away. Has any gentleman here any liquor to give her?" Twenty eight men in that car immediately rose to their feet, each with a flask in his hand.

About these times, when the peaceful Sabbath morning comes around and the head of the household, full of good resolutions for the coming week, seizes his blacking brush and attacks his go-to-meeting-boots, he is apt to howl out. "Mariar, how often have I told you to keep this brush out of the stove polish?"

The custom of drinking wine instead of liquor is a great economic benefit to France. The harvest of 1874 produced 1,386,000,000 gallons of wine, of which four-fifths were consumed in the country. This enormous yield was valued at $650,000,000, or more than the united wheat and cotton crops of the United States.

The falls of Niagara are now "the only thing in the way" of navigation between Chicago and Liverpool. It is pleasant to learn that in the opinion of several eminent geologists they are taking themselves out of the way at the rate of a foot in each thousand years.

An enthusiastic visitor, just returned from Philadelphia to Buffalo, says there ought to be a law passed punishing with fine or imprisonmet any American citizen who does not go to see the Exhibition, unless he can produce certificates of absolute poverty or sudden death.

Fat men and people with tight boots will be gratified to learn that there are only thirty-eight miles of walking required to obtain a full sight of the Centennial.

THE LONGEST SPEECH ON RECORD.

The longest speech on record is believed to have been that made by Mr. DeCosmos, in the Legislature of British Columbia, when a measure was pending whose passage would take from a great many settlers their lands. DeCosmos was in a hopeless minority. The job had been held back till the eve of the close of the session; unless legislation was taken before noon of a given day the act of confiscation would fail. The day before the expiration of the limitation DeCosmos got the floor about 10 A. M. and began a speech against the bill.

Its friends cared little, for they supposed that by one or two o'clock he would be through, and then the bill could be put on its passage. One o'clock came and DeCosmos was speaking still—had not more than entered upon this subject. Two o'clock—he was saying "in the second place." Three o'clock—he produced a fearful bundle of evidence and insisted on reading it. The majority began to have a suspicion of the truth; he was going to speak till next noon and kill the bill. For a while they made merry over it; but as it came on to dusk they began to get alarmed. They tried interruptions, but soon abandoned them, because each one afforded him a chance to digress and gain time.

They tried to shout him down, but that gave him a breathing space, and finally they settled down to watch the contest between strength of will and weakness of body. They gave him no mercy. No adjournment for dinner; no chance to do more than wet his lips with water; no wandering from his subject; no sitting down. Twilight darkened, the gas was lit, members slipped out to dinner in relays and returned to sleep in squads, but DeCosmos went on. The Speaker, to whom he was addressing himself, was alternately dozing and snoring and trying to look wide-awake. Day dawned and the majority slipped out in squads to wash and breakfast, and the speaker still held on. It can't be said it was a very logical, eloquent or sustained speech. There were digressions in it, repititions also. But still the speaker kept on. At last noon came to a baffled majority, livid with rage and impotence, and a single man, who was triumphant, though his voice had sunk to a husky whisper, his eyes were almost shut and were bleared and bloodshot, his legs tottered under him, ann his baked lips were cracked and smeared with blood. DeCosmos had spoken twenty-six hours and saved the settlers their land.

As the train stopped for ten minutes and that individual who goes along tapping the wheels with a hammer was passing rapidly by the smoking car, one of the windows was hoisted up and a torrent of tobacco spit was ejected which completely deluged him. The machinist paused for a moment, and, wiping some of the streams from his person, said to the offender:

"Mister, what part of the country did you come from?"

"I came from Kansas," said the spitter.

"I thought so," said the machinist "for if you lived in Massachusetts or Connecticut they would have had a water wheel in your mouth long ago."

ESSAY ON MULES.—The mule is the most unhealthy animal in the world—unhealthy to have around. The atmosphere about a mule is dangerous to inhabit. We have money to bet that when nature made the first mule some one got hurt. A mule is always at home, as you will find by calling on one of them. He is continually possessed of a yearning desire to stretch himself—especially his hind legs. He is also possessed of great heeling power. No man ever sees a mule kick him. The mule is very head-strong. He is likewise very heel-strong. The mule—but blame a mule, anyway!

"I've got another, my dear," said Mr. Dorkins as he hurried into the house.—"If you were on the top of Trinity Church spire on the back of a goose how would you get down?" Mrs. Dorkins thought she'd jump down, slide down the lightning rod, fly down on the goose, fall down, and then gave it up. "Why if you wanted to get down, you could pick it off the goose," said Mr. Dorkins, exultantly.

It is said that whoever goes to sleep first on the wedding night will die first, and we'd advise newly married couples to sit up all night and play checkers.

DRIVING IN ST. PETERSBURG.

In the first place, picture to yourself the drozhkies, which are mere single seats, like stools, without back or arms; although often necessary, it is next to impossible for two persons to seat themselves therein, so small are they, and two strangers thus seated can always be recognized by each having both arms clasped around the other, there being nothing else to hold on to; the driver has a smaller seat a little higher and in front. So seated, your driver starts; he is none of your lazy fellows, and he has learned that St. Petersburgh is a city of magnificent distances, and his norse starts and keeps on at a good run, and could you but hold on to the drozhky with your feet as tibgtly as you hold to your companion with your arms you would feel tolerably sure of keeping your seat. If you are driving on the Nievskey Prospect it is crowded with vehicles, the greater number of them drozhkies, all running as fast as your own; now you put out your hand to turn away a running horse's head within a foot of your own face, and directly your other shoulder wipes the foam from the mouth of another passing horse, and this is done so often that your outside garment soon looks like a winter landscape; for observations you have no time, your whole attention being occupied in wondering at the skill with which imminent collisions are dodged, and when at last you become used to it you think it the finest driving you ever enjoyed. Not only the driving, but the driver's dress and the horse's gear are peculiar. Fastened to the shafts of all vehicles drawn by single horses is a hoop bent from one shaft to the other and rising to the height of three or four feet above the horse's neck; the check rein is fastened to the top of this hoop. For drays this hoop is larger and heavier, often three inches thick and five inches wide and painted in bright colors, as a wreath of red roses on a ground of green grass. In all teams where three or more horses are used they are all harnessed abreast. The private teams are of extreme elegance. While in France there is a majority of white horses, in St. Petersburgh the greater number of fine horses are black. The private carriages are beautiful and in the finest taste. There is usually a dainty relief of gilt or silver on the carriage or harness, while the reins correspond in color with the lining of the carriage, and a jaunty tassel hangs from the throat latch. So rapid is the movement and so light and airy the tread of the horses they seem to fly as much as to tread the earth. The drozhky drivers are in uniform, wearing a blue double breasted wadded gown which reaches to the feet; under this a sheepskin skirt, and on the head a hat shaped covering with brood, spreading crown, nearly as low as a cap.

CUT THIS OUT.—The following recipe is furnished to the Virginia Enterprise by a correspondent of that paper:

"I herewith append a recipe which I know has been used in a hundred cases. It will cure or prevent the small pox, though the pittings are filling. It is as unfailing as fate, and conquers in every instance. It is harmless when taken by a well person. It will also cure scarlet fever. Here it is as I have used it to cure small pox, when the learned physician said the patient must die. It cured. Sulphate of zinc, one grain; foxglove (digitalis), one grain; half a teaspoonful of sugar. Mix with two tablespoonfuls of water; when thoroughly mixed, add four ounces of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disappears in twelve hours. For a child, smaller doses according to age."

We used the above recipe in a case of small pox at Eureka three years ago, and are fully convinced that it brought us through the disease quickly and safely, for we used no other medicine.

Indians living 1,500 miles west of the Big Horn, are said to have received news of Custer's defeat as soon as the whites, but their information came through Indian channel. Their system of telegraphy, although crude, is equal to the white man's harnessed lightning.

THE HOME FEELING.

"It is only shallow minded pretenders," said Daniel Webster, "who either make distinguished origin a matter of personal merit, or obscure origin a matter of personal reproach. Taunt and scoffing at the humble condition of early life affect nobody in America but those who are foolish enough to indulge in them, and they are generally sufficiently punished by the published rebuke. A man who is not ashamed of himself need not be ashamed of his early condition. It did not happen to me to be born in a log cabin, but my elder brothers and sisters were born in a log cabin, raised among the snow drifts of New Hampshire at a period so early that when the smoke first rose from its rude chimney and curled over the frozen hill there was no similar evidence of a white man's habitation between it and the settlements on the rivers of Canada. Its remains still exist. I make it an annual visit. I carry my children to it, to teach them the hardships which have been endured by the generations which have gone before them. I love to dwell on the tender recollections, the kindred ties, the early affections and the narrations and incidents which mingle with all I know of this primitive family abode. I weep to think that none of those who inhabited it are now among the living; and if ever I fail in affectionate veneration for him who raised it and defended it against savage violence and destruction, cherished all domestic comforts beneath its roof, and through the fire and blood of seven years' revolutionary war shrunk from no toil, no sacrifice, to serve his country and raise his children to a condition better than his own, may my name and the name of my posterity be blotted forever from the memory of mankind."

DEW-DROPS OF WISDOM.—He that knows how to speak knows also how to be silent.

Falsehood is often rocked by truth; she soon out grows her cradle and discards her nurse.

No support, when we are right, can be derived from those who are very ready to yield to us when we are wrong.

The door between us and heaven can not be opened if that between us and our fellow-men is shut.

When dunces call us fools without proving us to be so, our best resort is to prove them to be fools, without condescending to call them so.

The rich depend on the poor as well as the poor on the rich. The world is but a magnificent building; all the stones gradually cemented together. There is no one subsists by himself alone.

To be continually subject to the breath of slander will tarnish the purest virtue, as a constant exposure to the atmosphere will obscure the brightness of the finest good; but in either case the real value of both continues the same, although the currency may be impeded.

Science is capable of many things. The products of the cow yard and stable, changed into ethers of various sorts, make very nice perfumes and flavoring extracts for soda water and ice cream. This is now very generally known; but a correspondent of the Scientific American claims to have discovered in the despised b—d b—g "an odor as delicate and delicious as it was before rank and disgusting." This results from treating "nice fat bed bugs with a saturated solution of nitrate of potash in water exposed to the air for several days—the odor is unlike any other perfume, and no one would suspect its low origin."—Nitrate of potash is cheap, the raw material is plentiful, and, as the process is quite simple, there is no reason why any one who choses may not, like "the actions of the just," "smell sweet and blossom in the dust."

A wag, who had wrapped a piece of cloth having the word "centennial" on it around an egg and then boiled it so that the word appeared plainly on the shell, sadly deceived a country boy who took it out of a nest where it had been placed and exhibited it as a wonderful manifestation of the hen's inttmate knowledge of the history of the United States.

An apparatus for reviving persons nearly drowned is exhibited in Paris. The body of the patient is put in an air-tight vessel, with his head protruding. A pump then draws the air in and out of the vessel, which tends to make his breast heave and his lungs move, as in breathing.

James Baird, the Scotch ironmaster, who recently died, left an estate of £3,000,000. Not long since he gave half a million pounds to the Church of Scotland.

A hopeless case—The full grown young men who call his mother his maw and his father his paw.

TAKE A PAPER.—"I'm too poor to take a paper." If you are too poor to take a paper, you should be indicted by the Grand Jury for obtaining a family under false pretence. In nineteen or twenty of the un-painted, ill-located, uncomfortable dwellings on the roadside you will find neither newspapers nor traces of one ever having been there. The husband knows nothing about markets except a few items which he picks up at the country store. The wife is ignorant; and because she is denied the general information derived from newspapers she descends in the scale and becomes a newsmonger, filled with superstitious ideas and neighborhood scandal. The children grow up ignorant, with no ambition to push ahead in life. They know nothing and care less about the world they live in. Stop at any neatly painted house, situated in a grove of trees, with vines on the porch and paling fence in front, and on the table, in the corners and in the hall you will find the local papers. The proprietor is as well posted about the prices of everything as any traveling speculator. His wife has a wider scope for her mind's employment than neighborhood scandal, and the children grow up ambitious to succeed in life, and, warned of the tricks, wiles and quicksands of the world, generally press onward and upward into the front rank.

CURE FOR SCRATCHES.—Take by weight one part of rosin and three parts of lard. Melt them together over a slow fire, so as not to scorch or burn, and when melted let it cool, then it is ready for use. It will cure scratches on horses' legs if applied as soon as the disease is discovered. Use no water, but brush off dirt if any on the legs. Then apply a good coat of grease—enough to cover the parts effected—once a day, and two applications will cure the worst kind of a case. It is also good for old scabs on horses or cattle, and for galls and saddle scalds on horses.

The Texas Legislature recently passed a bill which makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $100, for a person to use profane language within the hearing of ay private dwelling. The Morristown Herald says that a man's mule got baulky in a Texas town the other day, and the man got angry. The beast would start off suddenly, run about twenty yards, and then stop fifteen minutes to survey the neighborhood, and before the man got out of town he owed the authorities $80,000.

Brittle hoofs are sometime caused by the continual rasping of the crust by farriers or blacksmiths; sometimes by the use of tar upon the hoofs, and often they are a constitutional defect of the horse. To remedy the defect in the first two cases, refrain from the causes, and in any case the hoof is softened and made less brittle by rubbing it daily with pure glycerine, and avoiding all contact with water or grease.

Now is the time for lovers to get spooney over ice cream, she taking a few pretty dabs at his vanilla, and he borrowing a taste of her chocolate. This process inspires confidence in the day when they will be throwing corn beef and cabbage across the table.—New York Herald.

On the evening of June 19 the unusual phenomenon of snow falling from a clear sky in well defined flakes was observed for half an hour at the signal station at Pike's Peak, and intense electrical displays occurred on the 16th, 27th and 28th.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
RUTHERFORD B. HAYES,
(of Ohio.)

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM A. WHEELER,
(of New York.)

ELECTION, NOVEMBER 7, 1876.

John Reeves, a clerk in the Columbus, Ohio, Postoffice for the past 13 years, has been arrested for robbing letters. He was watched through perforated walls and floors, and on the 30th of July was caught in the act of abstracting money from a letter, and, upon being charged with the crime, confessed. He was an active member of the Methodist Church, the Treasurer of an Odd Fellows lodge, a Mason and a zealous temperance man. This will give the local Democratic papers an opportunity to howl over Republican corruption; but will it not be as consistent to condemn the Methodist Church, or the secret societies to which he belonged?

NEW PATENTS.—Through dispatches to Dewey & Co., Patent Agents, United States Patents granted to Pacific inventors on this Coast, viz:

John W. Emerton, S. F., car wheels; Samuel Green, Los Angeles, Cal., compositions for manufacturing illuminating gas; George Greiner, Sacramento, Cal., violin pianos; John Q. Grinnell, Stockton, Cal., field derricks; Caspar T. Hopkins, S. F., street railroad rails; Anson Scott Levake, S. F., car wheels; Nills A. Olsen, S. F., meat choppers; John W. Platt, Mineral City, Nev., fuse lighters; Geo. C. Price and Thos. G. Morgan, Santa Rosa, Cal., earth boring machines; Richard Whitlock, Pacheco Cal., farm gates; John H. Woodrum, Portland, Ogn., combination locks; Samuel H. Wheeler, S. F., valve motion for steam engines.

The following notice was issued on Monday last:

"Congress having failed to provide for the expenses of the Interior Department beyond this day, no obligations will be assumed on the part of the Secretary or other officers connected with the service. Employes who wish to continue in the service are at liberty to do so, at the risk of further remuneration by the Government. (Signed.)

On Wednesday last twenty cases of smallpox were reported in Stockton.

ALPINE INVESTMENTS.

When the great developments were first made in the bonanza mines on the Comstock the papers of San Francisco teemed with articles congratulatory on the fact of those mines being owned by Californians, and showed how unfortunate it would have been had those great mines been owned by foreign capitalists—either Eastern or European—who would have drained this coast of the many millions that have been taken out of those mines during the past few years to the benefit of San Francisco. The day is not far in the future when the papers of that city will be bewailing the day they allowed the mines of Alpine county to pass into the hands of non-residents—as they are doing. The best mines of Alpine were and are—with but few exceptions—owned by poor men, who are anxious to see the mineral wealth of our county developed, and if our home capitalists fail to aid them it is but natural that they should seek aid from Eastern or London capitalists—and they have done so, and to-day a majority of our claims are now owned in the East and in London. The Londoners have developed their oldest properties to an extent to warrant great investments in neighboring claims, and have done so without creating any excitement calculated to thwart them in their purchases, and now that they have concluded—in a great measure—their investments, they will soon be in a position to ship bullion, which will go to England. It is not too late for San Francisco to take a hand in the development of our mines; and no mining district on the Pacific slope offers greater inducements for investment, and if our own countrymen give us the cold shoulder, foreign capitalists will not.

The Placerville Republican suggests that the State Central Committee change the place of holding the Republican State Convention from San Francisco to Sacramento, and says:

"We believe all State Conventions should be held at the State Capital, besides, at the present time many delegates will object to going to San Francisco. We believe that a much larger attendance could be secured were the Convention to be held in Sacramento."

After holding Conventions at Sacramento, for the past twenty-five years, it is not the fair thing to desert that Republican city for Democratic San Francisco. It looks too much like following the Democrats.

The bill restoring the old rates on printed matter is now in operation, and third-class matter is partially defined to be "transient newspapers and magazines, regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation at nominal rates," which is subject to postage rates at one cent for every two ounces, and one cent for each additional fraction of two. So far as that goes the law is as it was before the change two years ago, but the increased postage on the portion of third-class matter which comes under the denomination of merchandise is retained in the bill—one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof.

A judgment has been rendered in the Nineteeth District Court against the Odd Fellows' Savings Bank, of San Francisco. The bank had refused to pay a deposit, on the ground that the plaintiff had not presented his passbook, which it was proven he had lost. The Court held that the book being lost, the plaintiff could not present it, and should therefore recover.

The Republican State Central Committee headquarters have been removed to 318 Kearny street, Rooms 1, 2, and 3, east side between Bush and Pine, where Republicans, and all others desiring to act with the party, will be heartily welcome.

DEATH OF DR. MCMEANS.—Dr. S. A. McMeans, a respected veteren pioneer of the Pacific Coast, and well known in this State, dropped dead in his office at Reno on Monday last. The cause was heart disease. He was 70 years of age. He was State Treasurer of California about twenty years ago. He was one of the first pioneers of the Comstock lode. He stood high with the Masonic Fraternity, and was ex-President of the Nevada Pioneers. The Masons and Pioneers of Virginia City had his remains removed to that place, and statened a guard of honor over them. The Nevada papers speak of the deceased in the highest terms, and his death has caused a profound gloom among the older citizens.

The public debt was reduced $1,138,038 last month.

On Tuesday last the amount in the State Treasury was $1 038,954 35.

The first man arrested in Mobile on the 4th was George Washington.

The Democrats of Georgia have nominated C. H. Colquit for Governor.

A DOUBLE DANGER AVERTED.

The inhabitant of a malarious region is threatened by a double danger. He is not only compelled to breathe miasma, but to swallow it, since it infects not only the atmosphere, but water. The aerial poison threatens his system through the lungs and pores, the liquid thro' the stomach. Against this double peril there is but one protection, and that is to invigorate the entire body through the digestive and secretive organs. Ordinary tonics usually fail to accomplish this—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters never. In the tropics, where the diseases originated by malaria are of a far more malignant type than those originated by the same cause in the temperate zone, it enjoys immense and constantly increasing sales, and there is no portion of this continent where it is not the reigning specific for miasmatic fevers and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, proceeding from malaria and other causes.

The smallpox has broken out in Los Angeles. Several of Queen's Circus troupe are down with it, it is said, but Queen denies it and offers a reward of $5,000 to any one that will prove that one of his troupe has been sick with that loathsome disease.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

ROOMS OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 23, 1876.

The next Union Republican State Convention for the nomination of SIX Presidential Electors and SIX Alternates, and a State Controller, to fill the vacancy caused by the decease of Hon. J. W. Mandeville, the late incumbent, will be held in the City of San Francisco, on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1876, at Dashaway Hall, south side Post street, between Kearny and Dupont streets, at 10 o'clock A. M.

In calling the Conventions for the election of delegates, the Committees of the several counties are recommended to invite all Republican electors, and all other voters, without regard to past political differences or previous party affiliations, who are opposed to reviving sectional issues and desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the country by maintaining and enforcing all the constitutional rights of every citizen, including the full and free exercise of the righ of suffrage without intimidation and without fraud; who are in favor of the continued prosecution and punishment of all official dishonesty, and of an economical administration of the Government by honest, faithful and capable officers; who are in favor of making such reforms in government as experience may from time to time suggest; who are opposed to impairing the credit of the nation by depreciating any of its obligations, and in favor of sustaining in every way the national faith and financial honor; who hold that the common school system is the nursery of American liberty, and should be maintained absolutely free from sectarian control; who believe that, for the promotion of these ends, the direction of the Government should continue to be confided to those who adhere to the principles of 1776, and support them as incorporated in the Constitution and laws; and who are in favor of recognizing and strengthening the fundamental principles of National Unity in this Centennial Anniversary of the birth of the Republic.

The apportionmeat of Delegates is as follows:

Alameda	19	Plumas	4
Alpine	1	Sacramento	21
Amador	7	San Benito	3
Butte	10	San Bernardino	4
Calaveras	6	San Diego	6
Colusa	4	San Francisco	75
Contra Costa	8	San Joaquin	15
Del Norte	1	San Luis Obispo	5
El Dorado	9	San Mateo	6
Fresno	2	Santa Barbara	6
Humboldt	8	Santa Clara	15
Inyo	3	Santa Cruz	8
Kern	3	Shasta	4
Lake	2	Sierra	6
Lassen	2	Siskiyou	4
Los Angeles	15	Solano	13
Marin	4	Sonoma	10
Mariposa	3	Stanislaus	3
Mendocino	5	Sutter	4
Merced	4	Tehama	4
Modoc	2	Trinity	3
Mono	1	Tulare	5
Monterey	8	Tuolumne	5
Napa	6	Ventura	4
Nevada	14	Yolo	7
Placer	11	Yuba	8

County Committees and Congressional Committees will make provisions in their respective counties for the election of delegates in accordance with said apportionment, holding Primary Elections for the choice of such delegates; and the State Central Committee recommends that the delegates chosen to the State Convention be empowered to act as delegates to the Congressional Conventions of their respective districts.

The State Central Committee recommends the following test:

"Opposition to the restoration to power of the Democratic party, and intention to act in good faith with the Republican party."

By order of the Committee
ALEX. G. ABELL, Chairman.
M. D. BORUCK, Secretary Republican State Central Committee. je24-1m

The following from the Coast Review, the only Insurance Journal on the Pacific Coast, is to the point:

"For faithful and economical management, the Mutual Benefit has a record equal to any GIVES premiums received, have been LARGER than those of any other Company for the past ten years, and its average ratio of expense of management to income, since its organization, only amounts to 8 and 76-100 per cent. It is PURELY MUTUAL, dividing up the surplus annually with the policy-holders. It is a sound and reliable organization, under judicious management, and entitled to the full confidence and liberal patronage of the public."

THE CHRONICLE.

County Official Press.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

BLUE LAKES.—Mayor Bryant, Auditor Maynard, District Attorney Murphy, of San Francisco, and their engineer, Major Mendell, are visiting the different sources of water supply in competition for supplying San Francisco with pure water. Last week they visited Lake Tahoe, and this week examined the Blue Lakes, in this county. These lakes are about two thousand feet higher than Tahoe and are much nearer San Francisco. There is no purer water on this earth, and the Blue Lakes have the capacity to supply a dozen cities like San Francisco with all the water they would require. The cost of supplying San Francisco with water from these lakes would be much less than the Tahoe project, and would prove more beneficial to the city.

TO BE PATENTED.—Thomas W. Legget has had the Chancellor claim, comprising 2,250 feet—the late Balaclava, 1,500 feet, and the Snow Shriek, 750 feet; and also the London claim—formerly the Olive Branch and Edinburgh claims—surveyed for the purpose of obtaining U. S. Patents. These claims are in Scandinavian Canon, about half a mile from town.

ASSESSMENT ROLL.—The assessment roll of Alpine county foots up $453,111. This is a falling of about $200,000 from last year, caused by decrease of wood business. This is satisfactory to those who believe the interests of the county are not benefited by realizing the paltry tax of $6,000 on 200,000 cords of wood cut in this county for the Nevada market.

I X L.—The water is being taken out of the lower level, and, when clear a new pump that will throw 200 gallons a minute will be placed in position to keep the mine free. The old tunnel has been cleaned out, and the work of taking out ore will be commenced immediately.

TROUT.—The wood drives down Silver Creek a few years ago demoralized trout fishing in the vicinity of our town, but the trout are returning to their old haunts and trouting will soon become a favorite pastime for our citizens, as of old.

CREDIT.—In our last issue we mentioned that J. P. Ray had, at his own expense, placed the Silver King road in good order. We understand, however, that a number of the residents of Monitor put considerable time on the road in question.

SUSTAINED.—The Commissioner of the Land Office sustains the Sacramento Office in its decision that applications for mining patents must not embrace more than one lode. This is onerous for applicants, but good for the officials.

MACHINERY ARRIVED.—On Monday last the balance of the machinery for the Advance hoisting works at Monitor; and the castings for the O'Harra furnace at the Exchequer Mill, Silver Mountain, arrived at those points.

FROM LONDON.—Two gentlemen arrived yesterday from London to examine the mines in this district owned by London companies. They are guests of Manager Chalmers, of the Exchequer and I X L mines.

TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT.—The citizens of Silver Mountain will hold a meeting at the School House to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a temperance society.

COMING RIGHT ALONG.—Every arrival of the stage adds to our population. A number of miners are coming in for the Exchequer and I X L mines.

SURVEYED.—U. S. Deputy Surveyor Hawkins last week surveyed the Olive Branch claim for the purpose of having it patented.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—The Board of Supervisors will meet in regular session on next Monday.

The Commissioner of the Land Office has ruled that where a party abandons a mining claim, he has the undoubted right to remove from said claim any machinery or buildings which he may have placed thereon, or any ore that he may have extracted from such mine. A party relocating an abandoned mine may, in prosecuting work thereon, either sink new shafts and run new tunnels, or continue the work upon such shafts or tunnels as may have been constructed by parties who had abandoned the same.

George E. Pugh, a distinguished citizen of Cincinnati, formerly United States Senator from Ohio, died at his residence in that city, July 19th, aged 64 years, from an attack of paralysis. He was in the Senate from 1855 to 1861, and in 1860 was a leading supporter of Stephen A. Douglas. He had long been regarded as one of the ablest lawyers and greatest orators of the West.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, July 27, 1876.

The mercury has fallen, in the last three days, from the nineties down to nearly 60° above zero. This sudden change, although to most persons agreeable, is too much of a good thing, and no few with severe colds are now suffering in consequence.

The weather has been so terribly hot that all out-door sports have waned, and the result is that base-balling, rifle-matches, fishing, and even yachting have been made of little interest, thus far this summer, in Washington. Your correspondent forgets: the hot weather don't prevent Dr Mary Walker from putting in her appearance, although the Democratic cauldron has seethed so loudly that she has been deterred from putting in her accustomed bill for services in the Union Army.

"GOD BLESS 'EM."

"Men's stomicks are made so comical," said the matron in "Silas Warner," "they want a change—they do, God help 'em!" and the circumstances attending Tilden and Hendricks recall the quotation. The Eastern capitalists say to "Uncle Sammy," "specie resumption or else not a dollar." While on the other hand, Hendricks declares if the House fails to repeal the Republican resumption act he will refuse the nomination. Without Wall street donbloons Tilden will fail as said John Kelley at St. Louis) to even carry his own State, to say nothing of Ohio and Indiana in October. With the ill gotten gold he might let Indiana go, relying upon the heavier combined vote of New York, Connecticut and New Jersey in the electoral college. But Hendricks insists on "pap" for his rag baby, while his Eastern allies demand that it be declared illegitimate, with no regard to the character of its sponsers. Perhaps Senator Lamar can give them a little Hamburg speech, shedding crocodile tears amiably, and assuring the nation that, while he sincerely deprecates the circumstances, "Men's stomicks are made comical," that "eating crow," occasionally, "gives 'em a change—God bless 'em." However, if Tilden insists on "swapping horses in the stream," we will help him secure Morrison, of Illinois, or Payne, of New York, for never did artist more truly depict fact than when Nast showed John Morrissey's double-headed tiger, with Hendricks' facial resemblance hung up where the tail should have been pendant. Tilden insists the resumption act must not be molested; Hendricks demands its repeal. Some double headed measure, the "soft" end looking westward, will probably mark the close of the session, and the people be assured that Tilden is pledged to inflation and Hendricks converted to resumption. "They want a change, they do—God help 'em!"

SPEAKER KERR AND MR. HAYES.

A few weeks since the Democratic Speaker, Kerr, of Indiana, was charged, upon the oath of a defiant witness, with having received from his hands a price for an appointment, and the Republicans united with the Democrats to promptly relieve him of what they deemed a false accusation. But the Republican Representative Hayes, of Alabama, against whom not one cintilla of inculpating evidence was presented, is necessitated to accept the report that, "while the evidence is insufficient to convict, yet there is ground for grave suspicion" that honest dealing in this case was never intended.

MR. WHEELER'S LETTER.

Mr. Wheeler's letter of acceptance leaves nothing unanswered, and proves an admirable supplement to the straightforward announcement of Gen. Hayes. Both on the financial and Louisiana questions it is all that could be desired; no limping doubting phrases, but explicit and decisive. His intimacy with the two latter questions enables him to speak authoritatively. He sees the road to true financial reform lies only through prompt resumption; while his experience as author of the compromise by which the Louisiana difficulties were closed a year since, gives to his opinion a weight that all the Lamars, Merrimons, Hills and Blackburns will never attain. They talk loudly and fiercely and boast of "chivalric blood," but the nation cannot forget the nobler "loyal" blood it cost that this government might be perpetuated; and others than White Leaguers and members of the Golden Circle must tender the olive branch; for we know by sad experience that in their right hand is a drawn sword, and that their olive branch is saturated with maliciousness, capable of being converted into a blazing torch. What thinks Tilden of Conshatta and Hamburg? Dare he not answer?

YARMAN AN UNPROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

The ex-detective Yarvan proves an unprofitable investment for Archbishop Tilden of the new reform movement. His St. Louis friends, by some mysterious agency, were always informed of Yaryan's intentions, giving them time to put their houses in order; and it is now clear that he telegraphed them from Indiana and other points, at government expense, although the vouchers for the same disappeared as soon as he gained position within the walls of the Treasury building. "Lies (and liars) will come home to roost."

WHAT THE WISCONSIN PEOPLE THINK OF TILDEN.

Two days before Tilden was nominated the Madison (Wis.) Patriot said: "Besides being hard-soft-shinplaster anything-to-make-dollars man, Gov. Tilden is a big railway shark, with a double row of teeth all 'round." From a Democratic State organ, this is strong testimony to the Grangers and mechanics of the West, of the truth of charges that Tilden, as the credit-mobilier lawyer of the railroad corporations, robbed them of millions in town and county subscriptions, and that he and his friends hold liens on every second farm in the entire West; and now he wants the taxes taken of his mortgages, and the government (the people) to make good his investment.

BETA.

The late stormy weather damaged from 20 to 100 tons of hay for nearly every farmer in Carson Valley, to such an extent that it cannot be sold in the market and is worth but little for home use. This is the last of a series of blows which our home interests have sustained in the last eighteen months. What next?—Carson Valley News.

Chapter 426 of the new laws, now in force, makes stringent provisions in regard to hotels, etc. It provides that the keeper of every hotel, inn, boarding house or lodging house "has a lien upon the baggage and other property of value" brought there by the guest, boarder or lodger "until the board, lodging or room rent and such extras as are furnished at his request" are paid for. On the other side, every keeper of any such establishment "must post in a conspicuous place in the office or public room and in every bedroom, a copy of this law and a statement of the charges by the day and for meals or items furnish and for lodging." For any violation or neglect of this provision by the landlord the guest, boarder or lodger not only goes free of charge, but may recover three times the sum he would have been obliged to pay had the law been complied with.—Sacramento Bee.

THE REPUBLIC.—The July number of this magazine opens the Presidential campaign with its usual array of talent. This reliable Republican magazine is a valuable publication, and should be in the hands of all who expect to take an active part in this campaign. The number before us contains: The National Convention; An Encouraging Outlook; The Two Parties; Extradition; Investigating Committees; The Chinese in America; A Sectional South; State Sovereignty Facts; The Horrors of Andersonville; Patriotism and Slander; Education in France; Republican success and the National credit; Work of the Forty fourth Congress, etc.

To keep even with, if not go ahead of, San Francisco, a St. Louis corporation is hunting an elephant in the form of a palace hotel, and they will have a mammoth animal on their hands when the new hotel, which is to cost $2,000,000, being ten stories in hight, and containing 2,000 rooms, with accommodations for 3,500 guests, is finished. The projectors had better consult Senator Sharon and find out all he knows about keeping a hotel.

On the 2d inst., at a meeting of the National Executive Council appointed by the Indianapolis Convention of the Greenback party, in discharge of the duty imposed by the Convention to consult with Peter Cooper and leading Greenback men of the Union, Gen. Sam. T. Carey, of Ohio, was nominated for Vice President. Carey accepted the nomination.

In Nottingham, England, one Brett, parishioner of the Rev. Henry Jerome, Vicar of Boston Joyce, was ordered off the clergyman's premises, and the latter bade his son to shoot Brett. The young man fired, but missed. The reverend gentleman and his son were fined £5 each.

ALIAS SUMMONS.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT OF SECOND Township, in the County of Alpine, State of California.

JAMES DAVIDSON, Plaintiff, versus SOL. SIMPSON and O. W. WARD, Defendants.

The People of the State of California send Greeting to Sol. Simpson and O. W. Ward, Defendants.

You are hereby required and directed to appear before me, at my office in Second Township, in the County of Alpine, in an action, brought against you by the above named plaintiff and answer the complaint in said action, on file in my office, on the Tenth day of August A. D. 1876, at Twelve o'clock M.

The said action is brought to recover the sum of One Hundred and Sixteen and 50-100 Dollars, being a balance due on two accepted orders given by one Sam Dixon, accepted for payment by you, amounting to the full and just sum of One Hundred and Sixteen and 50-100 Dollars in U. S. gold coin, the said orders now being the property of this plaintiff, James Davidson, who claims to be the legal holder and owner thereof. And you are hereby notified that if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, as above required, said plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of One Hundred and Sixteen and 50-100 Dollars gold coin, together with costs of suit.

Make legal service and due return hereof.

Given under my hand this First day of June A. D. 1876.

R. H. FORD,
Justice of the Peace of said Township.

PROBATE NOTICE.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF ALPINE County, State of California.

In the matter of the Estate of JOSEPH FENLEY, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Mary Fenley, praying for admission to probate of a document filed in this Court, purporting to be the last will and testament of Joseph Fenley, deceased, and the issuance of letters testamentary thereon to the said petitioner,

It is hereby ordered that the 7th day of August, 1876, at 10 o'clock of said day be appointed for hearing said application, and that notice be given thereof by the Clerk of this Court, and directing that all persons interested in said Estate be and appear at that time in the Court room of this Court in Markleeville, County of Alpine, to show cause, if any they have, why said document should not be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of said deceased, and why letters testamentary should not be issued to said Mary Fenley, by publication of such notice for at least ten days previously to said 7th day of August in the ALPINE CHRONICLE, a newspaper published in Alpine county,

It is further ordered that subpœnas issue to the subscribing witnesses to said will.

Dated, Markleeville, July 20th, 1876.

S. W. GRIFFITH, County Judge and ex-officio Judge of the Probate Court.

I, L. M. Buel, Clerk of the Probate Court of Alpine county, California, do hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and correct copy of an Order duly made and entered on the records of said Probate Court, July 20th, 1876.

Witness my hand and Official Seal, this 20th July, A. D. 1876.

MEDICAL.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.

A prominent New York physician lately complained to DUNDAS DICK & CO. about their SANDALWOOD OIL CAPSULES, stating that sometimes they cured miraculously, but that a patient of his had taken them without effect. On being informed that several imitations were sold, he inquired and found his patient had not been taking DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO take this method of protecting physicians, druggists and theatres, and preventing OIL OF SANDALWOOD from coming into disrepute:

PHYSICIANS who once prescribe the Capsules will continue to do so, for they contain the pure Oil in the best and cheapest form.

DUNDAS DICK & CO. use more OIL OF SANDALWOOD than all the Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Perfumers in the United States combined, and this the sole reason why the pure Oil is sold cheaper in their Capsules than in any other form.

OIL OF SANDALWOOD is fast superseding every other remedy, sixty Capsules only being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight hours. From no other medicine can this result be had.

DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S SOFT CAPSULES solve the problem, long considered by eminent physicians, of how to avoid the nausea and disgust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to detract from, if not destroy, the good effects of many valuable remedies.

Soft Capsules are put up in tin-foil and neat boxes, thirty in each, and are the only Capsules prescribed by physicians.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.—Castor Oil and many other nauseous medicines can be taken easily and safely in DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S SOFT CAPSULES. NO TASTE. NO SMELL.

☞ These were the only Capsules admitted to the last Paris Exposition.

Who may be suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this the greatest boon ever laid at the alter of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness, or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice, that you are treading on dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage; remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering on the last, and are suffering some or all of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination, the time must come when the most skillful physician can render no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success.—Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave. Never before in the history of piano forte manufacture has an instrument risen so rapidly in popular favor.

Its intrinsic merit and decided superiority over all others has caused every musician and artist of note to adopt and recommend it.

Nilsson says, "I shall take every opportunity to recommend and praise your instruments."

Miss Kellogg says, "Your Pianos are my choice for the concert room and my own house."

Lucca says, "Your uprights are extraordinary instruments, and deserve their great popularity."

Patti says, "I have used the Pianos of every celebrated maker, but give yours the preference over all."

Strauss says, "Your Pianos astonish me. I have never seen any Pianos which equal yours."

Wehli says, "Madame Parepa called your Pianos the finest in the United States. I fully endorse that opinion. They have no rival."
